DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, drawn to a "stain-proofing agent comprising a polymer which contains at least one repeating unit (A1) having at least two hydroxyl groups", classified in class 526, subclasses 238.2, 238.23, 297, 303.1, 304 etc..
- II. Claims 4-7, drawn to a coating composition comprising a resin blend composition, classified in class 525, subclasses 199, 220, 221, 222 and 238.
- III. Claims 8-12, drawn to a "stain-proofing agent comprising a polymer which contains at least two repeating units (A2) having hydroxymethyl groups," classified in class 526, subclasses 297, 303.1, 304 and 307.2.
- IV. Claims 13-16, drawn to a coating composition comprising a resin blend composition, classified in class 525, subclasses 199, 220, 221, 222 and 238.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Groups I and III and of Groups II and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as being capable of use together, have different functions and produce different effects.

Inventions of Groups I and II and of Groups III and IV are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate products are deemed to be useful as molding compositions, or in the manufacture of films, and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Frederick Vastine on 9 November 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Nathan M. Nutter whose telephone number is 571-272-1076. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m..
